I. O. O. F. BANQUET DECIDED SUCCESS

LARGE CROWD, A MOST EXCELLENT PROGRAM, SPLENDID MUSIC, GOOD SPEECHES.

GOOD FELLOWSHIP PREVAILS

Everybody Welcomed—All Share in the General Good Time.

The I. O. O. F. Hall dedicatory exercises last evening were attended by a large crowd of Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends who heartily enjoyed every moment of the evening.

A program decidedly interesting and instructive was carried out successfully in nearly every particular.

The I. O. O. F. hall where the reception occurred, with its beautiful and appropriate decorations, was filled to overflowing. Here the guests were most highly entertained for something like an hour and a half with superb music, good speeches and readings.

Judge J. F. McKeel, master of ceremonies in a few brief, but well chosen remarks explained the object of the occasion, the features of the evening, bid everybody to enjoy themselves and have a good old informal time.

After a prayer by Bro. Leroy M. Anderson, Hon. Tom D. McKeown, on behalf of the Odd Fellows spoke words of welcome and good fellowship to all assembled. In his address the history of the lodge at Ada was briefly recounted. He paid a glowing tribute of respect and honor to some of the older members at whose door the black camel had knelt within the past few years, and whose lives and wise counsel had been an inspiration and an anchor to their younger brothers. After pointing to the indestructibility of the good work of Odd Fellowship and bidding all welcome and thrice welcome he closed his remarks; and Mrs. Morgan delivered the welcome address on behalf of the Rebekahs.

Mrs. Morgan in few well rounded, but statements which bespoke of mature reflection gave expression to the sentiments of the Rebekahs and assured the audience of open-hearted unbounded welcome and invited all to participate in the enjoyment of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Brower of Mill Creek, John and Charlie Cauncey and Frank Deal of Wynnewood were the members of the orchestra that furnished delightful music throughout the evening for both the reception and the banquet.

They seemed to know just what selections would please their hearers most and never once failed to make the audience impatient to hear the next number.

Besides music by the orchestra, Miss Murry Lucas rendered a piano selection that was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by all present, and Messrs. Guest, Walters, Wymore and Rev. Anderson sang, "Annie Laurie" as a quartette. They received a grand encore and responded again with one of their humorous selections to the delight of the entire audience.

Miss Mary Kate Baker gave a reading, "Jinny the Rebekahs" which greatly pleased everybody.

Miss Leone Chauncey read "Now Lay Me Down to Sleep" which brought forth much applause and by special request she gave another reading "Key to the Building," which needless to add was received in the same manner as the first.

Hon. Geo. A. Henshaw, present Assistant Attorney General, democratic nominee for corporation commissioner to succeed Hon. J. J. McAlester, and Grand Master for the I. O. O. F., Indian Territory Jurisdiction was introduced to the audience, and expressed his pleasure of being able to be present, but deferred making a talk till they were received in the banquet room, after which the audience passed through the I. O. O. F. reception room and were served to delicious punch by Mrs. Kee, Mrs. Hardin assisted by Misses Pearl and Ruby Gay, Mary Price and Leone Chauncey. Then passed down stairs to the Tobin building to the banquet room where they were served with a most delicious and bountiful repast and were treated to more music and speeches.

Judge Winn in "Memories of a Member of the Building Committee," related his pleasant experience of soliciting money for the erection of the hall and having to furnish it himself and other similar incidents which went to make up a very interesting story.

Because of the general hub-bub incident to having a large room and plenty to eat there was some difficulty in securing undivided attention of the audience.

The principal address of the evening was made at the banquet by Mr. Henshaw.

Owing to the difficulty of being heard distinctly he invited everybody to move up close, and made a short heart to heart talk on Odd Fellowship.

He spoke of the great field of opportunity before the real Odd Fellows where they can do something that pays—not in dollars and cents necessarily—but in the betterment of mankind and the uplifting of humanity.

Despite the general confusion he made a splendid straightforward talk on practicability of Odd Fellowship and concluded by saying he wished his fraternal brothers above all to look upon him as an Odd Fellow.

Thus ended one of the most successful and enjoyable occasions Ada has seen for a good while.

Everybody went away greatly pleased. The Rebekahs might justly feel proud of their successful entertainment.

TEDDY GREETED BY MISSOURIANS

SPEAKS AT KANSAS CITY, KANS., AND AT KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

Objects to Term of Long Defining Him as Insurgent—Would Prefer Progressive

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 1.—The people of Missouri kept up with a vim the roar of enthusiastic welcome which is following Theodore Roosevelt everywhere in his wanderings through the West.

The crowds which blocked the street of Kansas City cheered him when ever he made an appearance, and the three speeches he made here were received with shouts of approval.

Defines Political Status

The colonel was told that he was an insurgent through and through in a song sung in his honor at luncheon today, but he said it would be better to call him a progressive. The members of the Commercial Club, who were entertaining him, cheered his definition of his political status.

It was raining hard when Col. Roosevelt, after stopping at Kansas City, Kans., to make a speech, reached this city. In spite of the rain thousands of people were at the station to see him. After a parade through the business section of the city and the lunch the Colonel went to the Westport High School, in the southern part of the city, and talked to the pupils.

He wound up the day by making a speech to the throngs that filled the Auditorium. His speech was about honesty in public and private life.

Traffic Was Blocked

The crowds which came up to see Col. Roosevelt jammed the sidewalks and at points blocked traffic. The Colonel was cheered continuously and was kept on his feet bowing and waving his hand.

On the way to and from the school house the Colonel was escorted by a squad of police mounted on motorcycles. Being exempt from the operation of the speed laws for the time, the Colonel's chauffeur opened wide the throttle and whizzed over the boulevards at a rate that made the ex-President jam his hat down hard and gasp for breath.

The auditorium of the High School was crowded with students when the Colonel arrived, and they stood on their feet and gave him the Chautauqua salute, while at the same time the shouted at the top of their voices. As soon as they would let him speak, the Colonel said he had a confession to make; that he was a little afraid of the audience, because half of it was composed of girls, whom he never knew how to handle.

Is Afraid of Girl Audience.

"I have four boys of my own," said he, "and only two girls. The girls were both in charge of their mother until they grew up, and then they took charge of me. They have treated me kindly, but firmly."

Col. Roosevelt related stories of his African hunt.

Before he departed, however, he gave them some advice. To the girls he said:

"I don't like to have a girl dance all night, so that she will be tired the next morning when her mother wants something from the second story."

His Advice to Boys

His advice to boys was given in terms of football. It was:

"Don't shirk, don't foul and hit the line hard."

Col. Roosevelt's speech in Convention Hall tonight was his principle address of the day. He said that honesty should not be made a party matter and that the first man to attack a scoundrel should be the man in the scoundrel's own party. He spoke of corruption in New York, Missouri, Illinois and California, and said the duty of the people was to war with equal sternness against the corrupt man of great wealth and the small man who makes a trade of corruption.

"We need laws which shall put the corporation out of business, so far as concerns corrupting the servants of the public and betraying the rights of the people," he said.

"The people of this country will get justice from the corporations only after they do justice to them and rigidly exact it from them."

CAPITOL REMOVAL CASE SEPTEMBER 13

AUDITOR TRAPP WILL NOT OPEN

BRANCH OFFICE IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 1.—Attorney General West and other attorneys representing Gov. Haskell and Oklahoma City in the capital removal case tonight filed briefs in the State Supreme Court outlining their argument in support of the attempted removal of the seat of government from here to Oklahoma City based upon the election of June 14.

The brief contains one new assertion, that Congressman Byrd McGuire, then a Delegate in Congress from Oklahoma, has caused to be inserted in the enabling act provision temporarily locating the capital in Guthrie until after 1913, because of an alleged political advantage to himself. The brief states that Mr. McGuire was at that time a resident of Guthrie, whereas, in fact, his residence has been in Pawnee since coming to Oklahoma, although Guthrie was to be in his Congressional District.

Auditor Trapp stated today that he would not open a branch office in Oklahoma City and the quarters reserved in the Old High School Building there have been placed at Gov. Haskell's disposal.

Woman Routs "The Court"

Tulsa, Okla.—Armed with an umbrella and with her husband at her side as emergency reinforcement, Mrs. Joe Leithauser, a young married woman put to rout the court of G. W. Litson, justice of the peace, here today. She had asked for a change of venue in a lawsuit in which she and her husband were defendants and when denied it she was angry. Judge Litson was given a drubbing with the broken umbrella and Constable Joe Powell received a black eye and was bitten on the hand, it is said. Court adjourned when the battle was over.

Oldest Telegrapher Dead.

Willington, Del.—Isaac W. Hallam, probably the oldest telegraph operator in the country in point of continuous service, died here today, aged 81 years. He was an employee of the Western Union Telegraph Company for fifty-two years. For a time during the Civil war he managed the transmission of telegrams between the war department at Washington and the headquarters of the army of the Potomac.

WHITEHEAD PLEADS GUILTY

T. J. Whitehead, the man who produced the sensation by making an attack on some young ladies while they were walking along the street on Ninth and Johnson Wednesday evening pleaded guilty to assault and battery yesterday afternoon in justice court and paid a fine of $24.75. There were two complaints against him, but after he pleaded guilty to one, the other was dismissed.

Fred Saxon and Ed Hayes were arrested this afternoon on a charge of stealing a watch but entered a plea of not guilty and were released on a bond of $500 each for their appearance in court the seventeenth of this month. The watch in question belongs to Mr. R. E. Haynes who lost it about one week ago. It is alleged that Saxon found the watch, Ed Hayes being with him at the time, but both were keeping the find secret, until it was learned positively they had the watch in their possession. Mr. Haynes has recovered the watch and went on the young men's bond.

Corporal Dies After Boxing.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Corporal W.

H. Brinkmeyer of St. Louis died yesterday at Bluefields, Nicaragua, from injuries resulting from a boxing bout according to a wireless dispatch received at the Navy Department today from Commander Davis of the gunboat Tacoma. No details of the death were sent.

Grover Cleveland's Estate.

New York, Sept. 1.—A gross valuation of the estate of the late Grover Cleveland in New York will be filed with the surrogate today, showing $39,650, less taxes, commission, etc. The residue is $32,378, the bulk of which goes to the widow and children.

Rather than make public the full value of the estate here and elsewhere the executors chose to pay 5 per cent on the collateral bequests and forego the reduction allowed when a full accounting is made.

Will Built at Waurika.

El Reno, Ok., Sept. 1.—The new depot at Waurika will be very similar to the one at this place. It will be built of pressed brick and will have a brick platform, concrete curbing and will be thoroughly modern as to sewerage, etc. The old depot will be moved down the track and used for a freight depot. The Rock Island is contemplating other changes at Waurika. The new Waurika depot will cost approximately $19,000.

FIRE IN SUNRISE YESTERDAY EVENING

Mrs. M. L. Sowers of Sunrise came very near losing her home by fire yesterday afternoon.

It was between six and seven o'clock when the fire was discovered and there was no one at home except Mrs. Sowers herself. She was in the upper story of the house when her attention was attracted by the popping of the flames. Running down stairs she found the wainscoting in the kitchen burning rapidly, the fire evidently starting from the kitchen flue.

She gave the alarm and went to fighting the fire and by the aid of neighbors who rushed to her assistance held the flames in check pretty well till the fire department arrived and succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Mrs. Sowers says she has no idea how the conflagration originated unless it was from a defective flue, since there had been no fire since 1:30 in the afternoon.

Had the house not been well plastered, it would have beyond a doubt been destroyed. A great deal of damage was done to the building, but Mrs. Sowers feels fortunate in not losing her home, and praises the fire department and her good neighbors for helping save it.

Three Toes Cut Off by Train.

TIPS On Choosing a Bank

Before lining up with a bank you should investigate several points in connection with it. In the first place ascertain whether or not the bank is prospering and developing along with the other lines of business of the community. If a bank's business isn't prospering something is wrong. In the second place are the officers and directors of the bank good, safe business men who deal squarely with the people? Watch out for a bank operated by tricksters or sharpers. In the third place do the directors really direct or are they merely figure heads? Look out for a bank whose directors know little or nothing about its business.

We want you to investigate this institution. We know its business is prospering and increasing right along. You know its officers and directors and we believe they are safe, honorable, business men. The directors of this bank say what shall and shall not be done. They pass upon the loans regularly and their instructions are carried out to the letter. This bank is what they make it—A Strong, Prospering, Conservative institution.

By stipulation the cause was submitted to the court, on evidence being heard, as either party was certain to take an appeal. The defendants demurred to the plaintiff's petition on the ground that it did not set forth sufficient cause of action, and by sustaining this demurrer Judge Doyle held that the grandfather clause was constitutional and the law of the state. The plaintiff's attorney gave notice of appeal.
